IN POLITICS

Being Original And Culled Notes From Exchanges Upon Interesting Subjects

The announcement of Oscar J. McAda as a candidate for the nomination of the office of sheriff, subject to the will of the voters at the Democratic primaries on September 12, appears in this issue. Mr. McAda is at the present time a resident of Wilcox where he has been stationed as a live stock sanitary inspector for the past few years. He was a former member of the Arizona rangers and is well known throughout the county. He has served as an officer for a number of years and at one time was a mounted policeman in Tucson. Mr. McAda has entered the race at the solicitation of his many friends in the northern and central part of the county. He has numerous friends in all parts of the county and who are now earnestly working in his behalf. Mr. McAda was in the District yesterday and met a number of old acquaintances and was busy making new ones. He will remain here for a few days in the interest of his campaign. There is no doubt but what he will make a strong race for the nomination and will have nearly the undivided support of the northern part of the county.

In another column of this issue will be found the announcement of Mr. Simms as a candidate for the nomination of the office of Secretary of State, subject to the will of the voters at the Democratic primaries on September 12th. Mr. Simms is at the present time the State Treasurer but under the law he cannot hold that office for more than one term, so that he has decided to make the race for the Secretary of State's office. Mr. Simms has been a resident of Arizona for nearly thirty years and is very popular in his home county of Clifton and also in Graham where at one time he was elected to the office of County Recorder. His record as State Treasurer as well as that of other offices of public trust that he has held is one that anyone might be proud of. Mr. Simms is spending a few days in this district in the interests of his campaign and he finds a number of his former Greenlee and Graham county friends residing here who are working in his interests and who had him out introducing him to voters. Mr. Simms is a good campaigner and intends to make a thorough campaign in the State. He has hundreds of friends all over the State who are working in his interests and more are added to the list almost daily.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years

Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it.

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

The Theater

AT THE ORPHEUM.

The Upstart, a rollicking comedy on divorce, with no attempt at teaching one morals or endeavoring to forward any propaganda, is to be shown at the Orpheum tonight only.

There are all kinds of elopements and complicating situations which nearly swamp the divorce champion and he gets a thoroughly good trouncing by the village justice, but all ends happily, of course. There are some first class laughs in the piece, of the kind to make a fellow feel good all over. Miss Marguerite Snow and George La Guere appear in the leads.
